The word "latte" is Italian for milk. The Italian for milk coffee is caffè latte, but in English, people often say latte. Now there are many different lattes. With hot milk, chocolate, and coffee, you can make a chocolate latte. It is nice and sweet. Maybe you don't drink coffee, but that's okay. You can have a chai latte. There is tea in chai latte, not coffee.

Lattes are also works of art. With milk, you can create latte art. Popular latte art is of flowers, trees, or faces. You may not be a fan of coffee or lattes, but how can you not love a drink with a cute dog's face on it?
